The word "eter" in a black serif font, with a gold flame-like flourish above the 'e'.

[Chemistry]

Volatile, flammable liquid with narcotic and hallucinogenic effects.

[Ancient Philosophy]

Hypothetical fluid of a higher, metaphysical matrix, elastic and formless, considered to be the medium that filled the space between elements.

[For us]

Adaptable, with a free personality and no fixed patterns. Irreverent, yet delicate. A blend of the tangible and the imaginary, created to be felt rather than interpreted.
